

District 2 Research Endowment

About the Endowment: The District 2 Research Endowment provides annually either one Doctoral research grant of up to $2,500 and one Masters research grant of up to $1,000, or three Masters research grants of up to $1,000 each.

About District 2: District 2 of the National Athletic Trainers' Association makes up the geographic region which includes the states of Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. All members of the NATA that reside in these states are automatically members of District 2.

Research Grant Recipients:

- 2022 Not Awarded
- 2021 Karlee Burns, Temple University. "Concussion, Migraine, and the Athletic Trainer"
- 2020 Shawn Hanlon, MS, ATC, CSCS. University of Delaware. "Activity modification for adolescents with calcaneal apophysitis"
- 2016 Shawn Eagle MAT, ATC, CSCS, "Investigating Potential Neuromuscular and Sensorimotor Differences Between Recently Concussed Athletes and Healthy Controls"
- 2013 Aaron H. Struminger, MA, ATC. University of Delaware. "Comparing Glenohumeral and Scapular Musculoskeletal Adaptations between Youth and Collegiate Swimmers"
- 2012 Stephanie Segulin, University of Delaware. "The Relationship between Personality and Functional Ability following Anterior Cruciate Ligament Injury"
- 2009 Allison S. Kim, BS, ATC/L, University of Delaware. "A Gender Comparison of Knee Stiffness Regulation Under Cognitive Load"

Status: ENDOWED

Commitment: $75,000 Amount

Received: $75,000

Total Needed to Endow: $0

Individual Donors:

Deanna M. Errico

John Smith

Jacqueline Williams

Donor Organizations:

NATA District Two